TITLE: Court appraised historically significant case files

DATES: ca. 2000-

ARRANGEMENT: chronological

DESCRIPTION:

Records in this series are case files which the justice court has determined have historical significance. The criteria and authority of the court is outlined in the Utah Code of Judicial Administration 4-203. In deciding whether to designate a case as historically significant, the court may consider any relevant factor, including whether the case has been frequently cited, presented a rare legal issue or controversy, caused a change in law or policy, had long term or wide spread legal significance, affected a large portion of the community, was well-known in the community, was generally viewed in the community as important, involved a well-known person, or was the subject of a well-known book or film. Such cases are transferred to the State Archives for permanent retention.

RETENTION:

Permanent. Retain until administrative need ends

DISPOSITION:

Transfer to Archives.

RETENTION AND DISPOSITION AUTHORIZATION:

Retention and disposition for this series are authorized by the Administrative Office of the Courts.
