TITLE: Accounts payable reports

DATES: 1984-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 3.00 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

This monthly computer report lists the payment of all district bills. It is used for auditing purposes and serves as a record of all accounts payable transactions. The report is divided into the following four sections: outstanding purchase order register, check payment register, accounts payable check summary, and outstanding credit memo report. The accounts payable check summary is arranged by check number and date, vendor number and name, amount of check, and description of payment. The check payment section is arranged by check number and includes vendor number, name, and item; purchase date; purchase order, invoice, and fund numbers; location and program codes; function and object codes; invoice amount and any discount; and total amount. The outstanding purchase order register section is arranged by purchase number and includes vendor number and name; whether its a new vendor; date; description; fund code; location and program codes; function and object codes; amount of purchase order; amount of purchase order filled; and amount remaining. The outstanding credit memo report is arranged alphabetically by vendor and includes any outstanding credits and overpayments. This section is infrequently produced and usually contains no data.

TITLE: Financial reports

DATES: 1983-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 4.00 cubic feet.

DESCRIPTION:

This is a monthly computer report of all district financial information. It provides fiscal information in a variety of forms for accounting, auditing and planning purposes. This report is organized into seven sections. The first section is the budget location report which contains only information on expenditures and is arranged numerically by location code (school and some district offices). It includes account number, annual budget, encumbrances, current month expenditures, expenditures year-to-date, expenditures/encumbrances, budget balance, percent of expenditures, totals per function code and fund. The second section is the principals budget report which contains only information on specific items school principals have chosen to monitor (usually supplies, books, and custodial items) and is arranged numerically by location (school). It includes the account number, annual budget, encumbrances, expenditures, expenditures year-to-date, expenditures, budget balance, percent of expenditure, and totals per location code. The third section is the budget program report which is an all inclusive report of all revenues and expenditures and is arranged numerically by program number. It includes object code, annual budget/anticipated receipts, encumbrances, expenditures/receipts for current month, expenditures/receipts year-to-date, expenditures/encumbrances, budget/anticipated balance, percent of expenditures, revenue and expenditure totals for programs. The cumulative balance section is arranged by balance sheet number and summarizes all funds. The balance sheet report breaks down the balance sheet by fund code and balance sheet code and includes beginning balance, encumbrances, current month debits and credits, current month's totals, and current balances. The revenue detail report lists all revenues by revenue code. It includes anticipated receipts, current month receipts, year-to-date receipts, anticipated balance, and percent received. The final section is the expenditure detail report which contains all district expenditures by expenditure code. It includes expenditure code, annual budget amount, encumbrances, expenditures year-to-date, expenditures/encumbrances, budget balance, percent expended, and totals. The monthly reports are not accumulative. In 1985, the report began to be received on computer output microfilm (COM). Currently, the report is also received as a computer printout and is maintained because of handwritten notations added to the paper report.
