TITLE: Tax assessment rolls

DATES: i 1900-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological, thereunder numerical by serial number

DESCRIPTION:

The county treasurer records tax assessments given to individuals and businesses on a yearly basis, and then records payments of the tax. The assessment rolls show name and address of owner or prsessor of property; legal description of the landaand valuation of real estate; value of improvement; list of personal property and valud; amount of taxes distributed to various taxing units; total amounts of taxes; date of payment and remarks. Individuals tax rolls were divided into two categories, real estate and personal property (which includes all livestock and equipment). Business assessment rolls subdivded based on the type of company and the type ofequipment or stock they own. Most companies will have rolling stock (cars ortrains), buildings and other equipment. Public Utilities and Mines are teated seperately, because of the nature of their business. They record all natural resources that the company draws upon, and are taxed accordingly.
