TITLE: Collections procedure manuals

DATES: 1986-

ARRANGEMENT: Alphabetical by tax type

ANNUAL ACCUMULATION: 1.00 cubic foot.

DESCRIPTION:

Manuals used by the collections division to govern how the division selects, performs, and completes collection and compliance actions. The information is used by all agents and the division to select, evaluate, conduct, and finalize collection and compliance activities, plus criteria for waivers, offers, or compromise, and illegal drugs-stamp enforcement. These manuals specify actions and steps that must be taken to meet provisions of Title 59 of the Utah Code Annotated, and Tax Commission rules. Information includes collection and compliance data, document research and selection criteria, informant controls and guidelines for evasion and fraud, post audit collection procedures, compliance criteria, selection criteria for criminal prosecution, and other guidelines for collection, compliance, waiver, compromise, and tax enforcement.

RETENTION AND DISPOSITION AUTHORIZATION:

Retention and disposition for this series were specifically approved by the State Records Committee.

APPROVED: 01/1996

FORMAT MANAGEMENT:

Paper: Retain in Office until updated and then take sample for historical purposes and transfer to State Archives with authority to weed.

APPRAISAL:

This disposition is based on the administrative and historical needs expressed by the agency. Once the information is updated it is no longer needed by the agency. However, a sample of the collection procedures should be retained permanently to document tax collection procedures.

TITLE: Default notices

DATES: i 1986-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

DESCRIPTION:

This record is a notice sent to the Tax Commission by a creditor that a debtor has defaulted on a mortgage, note, or other obligation and that the creditor intends to sell the property held in security. The Tax Commission has a two-month period in which to decide to take control of the property in order to protect the State's interest or to facilitate the collection of taxes owed by the debtor. If the seized property is sold to pay for debts, the buyer is given a sheriff's (temporary) title valid for six months. The original debtor has this six-month period in which to redeem (buy back) the seized property for the price paid by the buyer, plus interest.

TITLE: Foreclosure notices

DATES: i 1986-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological

DESCRIPTION:

This record is a notice of a creditor selling real property at public auctions to collect funds owed on a debt. Notice is required in order to give other creditors a chance to take action to protect their interests in the property. These notice copies are sent to the Tax Commission to notify it of the seizure of real property. The Tax Commission has a two-month period in which to decide to take control of the seized property to pay for taxes owed by the debtor. If the seized property is sold to pay for debts, the buyer of the property is given a sheriff's (temporary) title valid for six months. The original debtor has this six-month period in which to redeem (buy back) the seized property for the price paid by the buyer, plus interest. The notices include the date, time, and location of sale; names of both creditor and debtor; type of instrument being foreclosed; date and location where instrument was recorded; location of real property, description of real property; date and location where notice of default was recorded; and date of notice of foreclosure.

APPRAISAL:

These records have administrative value(s).

The Tax Commission has asked for a six year retention after the case has closed. These files are useful as a research and reference file, and used by the Tax Commission to give a compliance history of the taxpayer. These files are also useful to provide leads as to the taxpayer's location and assets. This retention is the same as other business tax records and returns.
